

Come on Michael Powell, stop worrying about the seven dirty words and do your real job. Is it not more important to prevent a violation that can affect a national election. Or are you just a neo-con puppet? Be a man and have some principles as the leader of the air waves.